

RSQC2

Recall: In one minute, write down what you remember from today's workshop.

Summarize: In two more minutes, imagine you are providing a summary of this workshop for your colleague, what would you say?

Question: What question do you still have? Write them down.

Comments: Share your questions with the person next to you. Are they the same or different? Decide together which question is the 'most' important.

Connect: As a result of the workshop, identify themes to connect this material to what you already know and to your daily work.
